Results of the
2015(Postponed) Session of the Foreign Practitioner Examinations

4 July 2016 – The Singapore Institute of Legal Education (‘the Institute’) released the results of the Foreign Practitioner Examinations on 1 July 2016.

The 2015(Postponed) session of the Foreign Practitioner Examinations was conducted from 28 March 2016 to 5 April 2016. A total of twelve (12) candidates sat for the examinations held over four days. The examinations comprised four components, namely, Commercial Practice, Corporate Finance, Corporate Practice and Ethics & Professional Responsibility.

The Institute is pleased to announce that seven (7) candidates have been awarded a pass in the 2015(Postponed) session of the Foreign Practitioner Examinations. They are, listed in alphabetical order:

- Hagen Henry Rooke (Mr)
- Henry Hunter Lobb (Mr)
- Stephen Banfield (Mr)
- Takeshi Komatsu (Mr)
- Yap Ling Man (Ms)
- Yoshikazu Hasegawa (Mr)
- Yuji Senda (Mr)

Foreign-qualified lawyers who pass the Foreign Practitioner Examinations can apply for a Foreign Practitioner Certificate under section 36B of the Legal Profession Act to practise in permitted areas of Singapore law.

The next session of the Foreign Practitioner Examinations is expected to be conducted in 2017.

David Quark
Executive Director and
Director of the Foreign Practitioner Examinations
Singapore Institute of Legal Education